BOND ISSUES IN THE COUNTY

School Bonds to Be Voted in District 9; Road Bonds in Precinct 8.

Commissioners' court adjourned Tuesday noon to meet at 2 o'clock at the First National bank, to count the county's money on deposit there.

The balance in the treasury is $55,016.01.

Later the commissioners left on a trip up the valley to inspect the new road to the New Mexico line, recently completed and to view the lands in justice precinct No. 8, where the residents have petitioned for an election to vote on the issuance of $10,000 in bonds for road building.

In accordance with petitions from residents of school district No. 9, elections were ordered Tuesday to vote on the proposition of a $21,000 bond issue to build a new schoolhouse and also a tax to supplement the state school fund.

The request of C. E. Kellogg and others for crushed rock for a church foundation at Clint was denied.

The appointment of Juan Salcido as assessor of the island ditch was confirmed.

The resignation of Gus Bogel as constable of precinct No. 6 was accepted.

Will Davis, road inspector, was appointed meet inspector outside the city and authorized to collect the same fees as the city allows.

The candidacy of E. M. Lapowski for adjutant general of the state militia was given indorsement by the commissioners.

Monday the vote cast at the state election was canvassed and the officers receiving the highest vote were declared elected. The vote has not yet been tabulated. The total number of votes in the county is 2458, according to the election returns.

Congressman Smith received 2307, the highest polled. Colquitt, the Democratic nominee for governor, received 2078 votes; Terrell, Republican, 328, and Houston, Prohibitionist, 21.

No action has as yet been taken relative to the tie vote for constable in precinct No. 5, at Sierra Blanca. A. T. Duncan, the present incumbent, will hold the office until the dispute is settled.

County engineer Nunn was authorized to construct a siphon at the Saltillo ditch on the county road rather than raise the roadbed to afford the water passage.

An order was made establishing a new school district out of a portion of the Ysleta district, No. 9, and naming the district San Jose.

ARREST COMMANDANT OF JUAREZ CUSTOMS

Wholesale Smuggling Alleged to Have Been Discovered on Mexican Side.

Jailing of the commandant of Mexican customs inspectors has followed the investigations in Ciudad Juarez of J. Larrea, special examiner of customs houses. Desiderio A. Paredes, for many years chief of fiscal guards at the border city, was arrested Monday afternoon, and is now serving the preliminary "incommunicado" period pending examination.

Until the end of the preliminary period, the court will make no announcement, but the matter is connected by sequence with the investigation of merchandise smuggling. Two wagons belonging to Garcia have been confiscated but Garcia himself is said to be in El Paso.

We have learned that there has been extensive smuggling of merchandise from El Paso, said Mr. Larrea yesterday, "it is true that the wagons of Garcia were confiscated."

"Regarding Paredes, I know nothing except that I understand he has been detained. I have made no charges against him, nor received official notification of his arrest. He is the only one arrested. I do not believe that any inspectors have disappeared. A story of a coup which was pulled off at the bank during the rush hour Saturday afternoon."

According to manager Winchester Cooley a man, probably under check for payment at the paying teller's window Saturday afternoon. The checks were signed by persons who had no accounts in the bank. The money was counted and the paying teller turned to look at the names on the books of the bank when one of the men reached through the window, Mr. Cooley says, and grabbed the money, making his getaway before the loss was discovered.

Bill Smith, stationer, who works on the case and Nichols and Blayer were arrested Tuesday morning at the Union station.

APPOINTMENT TO WAIT ON OPINION

Pending the receipt of advice from the attorney general, it is not probable that a county auditor will be appointed in El Paso county, according to the statement of Judge A. M. Walthall. The act providing for the establishment of the office was passed in 1905 and states that a county auditor shall be named in counties with a population of 40,000 and a city of 25,000 at the last federal census.

In the event the auditorship is created, it is more than probable that J. A. Escalada will be appointed.

FILES SUIT FOR $20,000 DAMAGES

Dolores R. Carrasco has filed suit in the federal court for $20,000 damages against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad company in her own name and those of her two minor children.

The suit results from the death of her husband, Amador Carrasco, on November 10. He was watching the Mexican National train cross the bridge when, it is claimed, a Santa Fe engine bore down on him in the Santa Fe yard, and ground him under the wheels.

RAILROAD COMPANY WINS IN HART SUIT

Judgment for the defendant has been announced in the 34th district court in the suit of Juan Hart against the Southern Pacific railway company.

The plaintiff asked judgment for $5000, alleging that flood waters damaged his property near the smelter. The case will be appealed.
